

Does Ascent360 store credit card information in the database?

Ascent360 will not store unsecured credit card information in the database. However, Ascent360 can store an encrypted version of a credit card such as a token or a seeded and hashed credit card. The encrypted version of the credit card can be very useful for matching.
